Today's workforce is more mobile than ever before—and it's a trend that's likely to accelerate.

Your employees need to stay connected and be productive from virtually anywhere. That's where Connected Laptops powered by Verizon can help transform your operations, not only giving your employees more mobility but also providing:

Reliability

Verizon's 5G Ultra Wideband network is accessible to over 280 million people across the United States, and when paired with an expanding selection of 5G-capable laptops, helps drive new use cases for businesses.

Security

Rather than relying on unsecured public Wi-Fi, Connected Laptops powered by Verizon can help businesses stay secure and productive on the Verizon network.

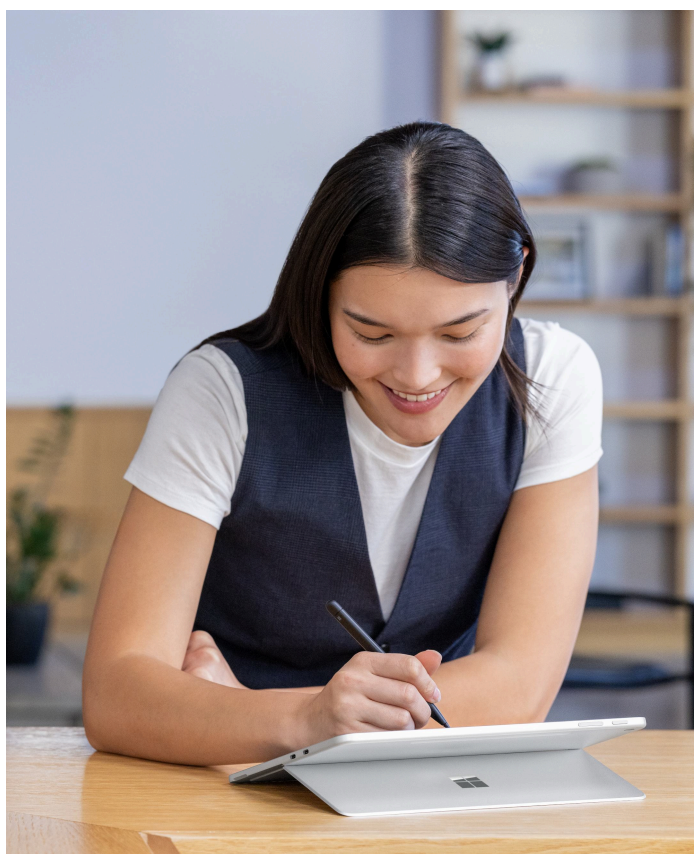

Productivity

Laptops connected to the reliable Verizon 5G network can help enable employees to access key work tools, leverage hybrid AI solutions and stay productive from virtually anywhere.

Future-readiness

Support your employees with cloud and on-device AI tools with connected Windows 11 laptops.

Connect your Surface Pro laptop to the Verizon 5G network for productivity that travels with you.
